First impressions are everything and this home will deliver the goods. With an impressive street presence that makes you feel at home before you even walk in, you're definitely going to be impressed.

Situated in arguably the most sought after street in Narellan Vale and perfectly positioned on a 1200m2 block this home is sure to be ticking the right boxes. With additional covered car spaces and an oversized garage you're spoilt with storage space and room for all your toys and hobbies. If that's not enough, you've got ample side access to make for additional storage or a great space and access point for entertainment.

The internal living spaces are well proportioned and offer enough room for families of all sizes. The kitchen is the centrepiece of the home and delivers an abundance of bench space and storage.
