A place to call home

Tucked away in a quiet street and directly across Chatsworth Park, sits this four-bedroom home. Positioned on a 504m2 block, this home allows the opportunity to have side access for trailers, jet skis and any other toys you may have in your collection. With a covered alfresco, built in barbecue and a bar fridge, this is a family entertainments bliss.

The moment you step inside, you will be greeted by the warmth of new carpet and the fresh scent of paint, instantly making you feel at ease knowing it's all done before you call this house your home. And let's not forget the incredible location! Just imagine walking up each morning to the picturesque view of the parkland across the street or walking the little ones to school.
