

4 Sunnyside Place Blakehurst, NSW

Resort inspired living with light filled interiors

This stunning multi-level architect designed family home, set in a tranquil cul-de-sac, offers luxurious living with views of the Georges River. The seamless flow between sunlit open-plan interiors and outdoor entertaining spaces, including a sparkling in-ground saltwater pool, makes it perfect for both family life and hosting guests. High-end finishes, such as herringbone flooring and a Caesarstone kitchen with Miele appliances, elevate the home's elegance, while the private master suite and meticulously landscaped gardens add to its allure. With its exceptional location and flawless design, this home is a true gem in an exclusive neighbourhood.
