

3 Frederick Street Concord, NSW

Gorgeous Sandstone Bungalow with Golf Course Views

All the charm of yesteryear and with a recent renovation, this beautiful home represents a rare opportunity to live in a classic federation bungalow modernised to an exceptional standard. With views over Massey Park Golf Course, and a full wrap around verandah which adds to the outdoor space and to further enjoy the green surrounds of the golf course location. Nearby are the amazing cafes and restaurants of Majors Bay Rd, the beautiful foreshore walk and Cabarita Wharf offering ferry transport to the city.

Foxcroft Named after the family and quarry master who built it in circa 1914; is a Concord landmark and a living link with the District's history.
