Historic 'Dunrobin' Bluestone Cottage in Skipton

If the walls could talk we would hear a thousand tales. Built in the 1850's "Dunrobin" Cottage has stood the test of time and housed many occupants over the past 174 years. Greeted with historic street appeal and cottage garden this property looks like a storybook picture.

Be captivated the moment you enter this Bluestone cottage which features exposed stone walls internally. A cosy lounge/dining area flows seamlessly to the updated kitchen with modern appliances. The ceiling is lined with timber and the flooring is polished wooden floorboards which have been installed over solid bluestone boxed footings.
