A page from history

Boasting character cottage appeal while being modern in design and surrounded by park-like gardens, this delightful home finds the perfect balance of warmth, privacy and comfort. Its highly versatile single level layout is complemented by a range of alfresco areas, while its peaceful address is only an 800m (approx.) stroll to the charming Tarrawanna Village.

- Grand family cottage with multiple living areas all set across one convenient level
- Travertine feature flooring, gorgeous natural light through sunny stained-glass windows
- Quality kitchen complete with 900m Glem oven, granite benchtops and ample storage
- North facing front veranda plus courtyard entertaining, quaint established gardens
- Third bathroom with beautiful soaking tub, entry from the green room courtyard
