Family Living with Sheds, Beds and More!

If you dream of more space for the family while still being close to town look no further. This fantastic family home is set on 8.75 acres (approx) of scattered native bush and is the perfect place for the growing family. Have the best of both worlds with your own peace and tranquility at the property and the Buninyong Village only a short 9km drive away for all your shopping needs. The Napoleons Primary School is nearby and if the children already attend a school in Ballarat it will only be a mere 12kms to the top end of Sebastopol.
