Away from the Hustle and Bustle

Set high on the hill on a 658 square meter parcel of land sits this grand architecturally designed family home amongst pristine landscaped gardens and lawns.

With 5 generous bedrooms and 3 bathrooms this home is certainly one of a kind, with supremely high ceilings, polished timber floors and 4 amazing light-filling living spaces every member of the family will have their own private space. Whether you're nestled next to the fire, reading in a nook, soaking up the view from the top deck or watching a film in the family room there is enough space for everyone.

Comfort is paramount and you can rest assured that you will be comfortable all year round with your slow combustion fire for the winter and the ducted air conditioning for the summer.
