Cul-de-sac family home

Tucked at the end of a cul-de-sac, 6 Coreen Place offers an idyllic location where children can play in the street and cycle to the beach.

With solid bones and a practical open-plan layout, the freestanding residence only requires minor cosmetic updates to transform into a delightful contemporary family home.

A low-maintenance yard and alfresco area completes the offering, and conveniently adjoins the kitchen and living zone.

On the coveted eastern side of Banksia, the property is just 11km from the CBD, and a stroll from the new Barton Park recreation precinct. Discover a wonderful lifestyle and enticing value within easy reach of Sydney's key attractions.
