Welcome to this unique opportunity in Howden!

Situated on a large block (approx. 2009m²) with a distinctive front facade design, this property has been cherished by one family for over 38 years.

Built in the 1960s the property features timber panelling throughout.

The spacious kitchen/dining area looks out over the backyard where you are treated to the visiting wallabies and kookaburras.

The property features a choice of heating via a woodheater and/or heat pump.

Relax in the large lounge room where the sun flows through the featured cantilevered windows before retreating to the generous sized bedrooms.
